

15 November 1956

Was there an American intelligence failure in the Middle East crisis?

Any comment to make on Mansfield's (and Scripps-Howard papers) need of a watch-dog committee of Congress?

Will there be a second Jordan front against Israel?

Will Soviet "volunteers" and "experts" join the Jordanian forces?

Do you see any danger of a direct Soviet intervention in the Middle East via a Syrian-Jordanian-Saudi attack against Israel, in which Soviet volunteers and arms could play the decisive part?

Should there be a demilitarized or an internationalized zone between the Arab states that surround Israel and Israel to help prevent the Arab eventual destruction of Israel?

Was there an alliance between Britain, France and Israel to attack Egypt?

Hungarian rebels complain the West does not help them and that Radio Free Europe broadcasts were factors in the rebel uprising. Will you comment on these allegations which are appearing in the US press and on the radio?

Did the Bagdad pact have any influence in bringing a cease fire in the Middle East?

Should the U.S. join the Bagdad Pact?

Are NATO, SEATO, the Warsaw pact, and the Bagdad pact dead or dying?

Is the Bagdad Pact responsible for the current Middle East Trouble?

Nehru says the Bagdad Pact split the Arab world into two parts and started them quarrelling, one pro-Soviet, one anti-Soviet.

Is the Soviet aim in the Middle East a military pact with Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia?

Is Rumania about to break loose -- violently -- from the Soviet?

Where does Tito stand now that he wavered over Hungary's revolt?

What are the immediate prospects of a world war? Line-up of both sides.

Will the Soviet actually send or permit "volunteers" to the Middle East?

Should the U. S. do all it can to further the rift between Tito and Moscow so as to break up the monolithic Soviet government?

Do you think Kadar will live very long?

Are there any indications that Bulgaria is being threatened by internal disorder because the people are fed up with Soviet control?

Getting closer to home, there have been numerous press reports that Haiti may attack Cuba, and that the ~~Ba~~tista regime is in danger from within as well as outside Cuba. Will you comment on these reports?